

APPLICATION PROCEDURES FOR A DESIGNATED HUNTER

1. This procedure governs the application process for tribal members to become a designated hunter in accordance with the “Sustenance” section of Chapter VII, Fish and Game Regulations of the Penobscot Nation.
2. Tribal members wishing to become a designated hunter must file an application at the DNR office.
3. DNR will forward all designated hunter applications to the Fish and Game Committee for review/action at the next scheduled meeting of the committee. Applications will not be approved/denied between meetings unless a regularly scheduled meeting is cancelled.
4. Upon review and approval of an application, the Fish and Game Committee will forward the application to DNR for issuance of the permit.
